LYNCHED BY NIGHT RIDERS.

Thirty or more masked and heavily armed night riders on Monday night kidnapped and forced from their hotel in the little village of Walnut Log, Tenn., on Reelfoot Lake, Capt. Quinton Rankin and his law partner Judge R. Z. Taylor, of Trenton, Tenn., together with a surveyor and guide, and, it is believed, lynched the four.

Capt Rankin's body was found by a searching party from Walnut Log, hung to the limb of a tree on the shore of Reelfoot Lake and filled with rifle and revolver bullets and buckshot

Judge Taylor's body is still being sought for, as are the bodies of the surveyor and the guide, men residing on the Reelfoot border From remarks let fall by the masked mob, the relatives of Walnut Log believed that each man was hung and shot-riddled in a different place along the lake shore.

The cause of this triple murder dates back two years or more to the time when Judge Taylor and Capt. Rankin, acting for a syndicate in which they are alleged to have been large stockholders, began to buy all the land bordering on Reelfoot Lake, a beautiful sheet of water many miles in extent, which, ever since it was formed by the New Madrid Bend earthquakes of 1811 and 1812, has been known from Mexico to Canada for the sport its inexhaustible fish supply afforded to anglers and its feeding grounds to duck and geese hunters

The closing of this great lake to local fishermen, and more especially the cutting off of the scanty earnings of many families who served visiting sportsmen as boatmen and guides, raised a storm of indignant protest, and the firm of Taylor & Rankin, who engineered the purchase deal, and who secured the iron-bound charter under which the first Tennessee land company operates, received many death warnings.

Armed posses organized in Obion and Lake counties, in both of which the lake lies were yesterday scouring the country around the lake, and it is possible that state troops may be called out.

Gov. Patterson, of Tennessee, has offered a reward of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of any one or more of the lynchers, and the families of Rankin and Taylor will increase this by private offers.

NARROW ESCAPE

The timely intervention of a physician, who was not satisfied with the appearance of the body, yesterday prevented the burial alive of Mrs. Thomas Chapman, 60 years old, who was supposed to have died suddenly of heart disease on Saturday, at Ellis, Kansas. The body was prepared for burial, but was not embalmed The funeral was to have taken place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A few minutes before the coffin was sealed a physician requested to see the body. After confirming his suspicions that the woman's body was made rigid by suspended animation, the woman was removed from the coffin, placed in bed and revived. While her heart is weak, it is believed that Mrs. Chapman will recover.

WOMAN FELLS ASSAULTER.

Mrs. George M. Wyatt, wife of the agent for the Old Dominion Steamship Company, in Richmond, last night put to flight a negro who had attacked her on the street. The negro stepped from a dark alley and confronted Mrs. Wyatt while she was on her way to visit a relative.

After cautioning the woman not to cry out, he caught her by the arm and attempted to drag her into the alley. Mrs. Wyatt had no intention of of submitting without a struggle. She struck the man in the face with her clenched hand, staggering him. In the darkness the negro stumbled and fell, and Mrs. Wyatt, instead of retreating when the way was clear, stood her ground and kicked her assailant in the ribs while he was down

All the nerve was taken out of the negro, who beat a hasty retreat as soon as he could regain his feet.

CANAL WORK ESTIMATES.

Estimates for continuing work on the Panama canal have been completed by Lieut. Col. George W. Goethels, chairman and chief engineer of the commission, and have been submitted to the secretary of war for submission to Congress. The sum of $35,000,000 is requested for the work during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1909. This is an increase over the estimates submitted last year of about $4,000,000. The appropriation last year for the current fiscal year was $27,000,000.

SHOT FATHER FOR BURGLAR.

Mistaking his father for a burglar whom he was chasing from the house with a shotgun, Earl Smith dangerously wounded L. L. Smith, his father, at the Smith home in Norfolk yesterday morning. The elder Smith is employed by the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company, and worked late. When he entered the house Monday night his son was pursuing a burglar in the darkness. The boy didn't hear his father enter, and ran into him, and, thinking he was the burglar, he fired. The burglar escaped by the back way. It is expected that the injured man will recover. The younger Smith was arrested, and afterward released when the facts were ascertained.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 21, 1908.

MANY people, in fact a majority in most any community, think the boycott is an instrument of doubtful effectiveness to be used to secure certain results, or to wage a successful fight, whether used by a body of men affiliated for mutual interest and protection, or another class of persons much less deserving than the toilers, who in secret bond themselves together to frighten those whom they employ. The Gazette has always regretted the resort to the boycott, while conceding the right and benefit of men associating themselves together for their moral as well as their material benefit. But we cannot see, and do not admit, that the so-called boycott is worse—nay, even near so baneful in its effects as the coercion, real or attempted, of their employes, by the manufacturers and mill owners. From time to time during the past two months the republican press being estopped from using "the full dinner pail," or "Taft the advance agent of prosperity" cry to conjure with, have prominently displayed in their columns reports that such a factory, or mill, or business house would close, or such a railroad would reduce its force in the event of Mr. Bryan's election. This is to coerce the artizan, and the clerk and the working man. Indeed Mr. Taft has again and again insisted and asserted, immodestly, that only in the event of his success was there any hope for the country's future. A few days ago this article went the rounds of the republican press about the clothes problem:

Marcus M. Marks, president of the National Association of Clothiers, in an interview called attention to certain facts which indicate, in his opinion, that greater business prosperity is waiting only for the election of Mr. Taft, while hardship is in store for workers and manufacturers if Mr. Bryan wins.

Orders are being placed in the clothing trade, according to Mr. Marks, with provises for cancellation in the event of Mr. Bryan's election. Mr. Marks said:

"A number of merchants who are very conservative and fear that industrial affairs will be seriously interfered with if Bryan should be elected are covering themselves against such a risk by placing their orders with the condition attached that they are subject to cancellation in case Bryan is elected."

Could anything be less sensible, or more in the nature of a threat? The whole statement is as untrue as it is vicious. One had almost from the claims made by the republican speakers and papers become proselyted to the idea that only under Mr. Taft's rule was the sun to shine when the mechanic is to work outdoors, and rain whenever the farmer desires it to refresh his crops or replenish his springs; and that a divine. Providence is not to be our sole reliance; that Taft is the Moses to lead the people of the south out of the wilderness of despair and let them view the promised land in the way of patronage; the Joshua to command the sun to stand still and the Aaron to smite the rock and allow the waters of prosperity to gush forth in a never ending stream. We repeat one might be converted to all this, but we balk at the threat of the National Association of Clothiers to relegate us to the condition of our paterfamilias. Adam, to face an approaching winter without proper garments, unless we can make last year's left over's answer. Well, we wont believe any such nonsense; if we did, we would pray as earnestly for Mr. Bryan's defeat as we have worked for his election, and the signs of the times indicate that he will be elected.

CORNELIUS N. BLISS has sounded a note of warning to business men of the country, that future business prosperity depended on Bryan's defeat. Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur in his sermon in New York Sunday said that Governor Hughes's defeat would be a disgrace. No man can stop the development of this country, and it may be added that no considerable party of men want to do any such thing. The pending election should be decided upon other grounds than vague business fears or the fears of some business men concerning what other business men may do in case this or that candidate wins.

MR. SHERMAN, republican vice presidential nominee, addressed a republican meeting in Philadelphia last night and told of the harm that Bryan may do [illegible] elected president. But he [illegible] a word about the harm he, [illegible]," has already done.

n Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 21.

Breathing optimism and declaring that Judge Taft has the presidential battle already won, Senator Dixon, of Montana, in charge of the speakers' bureau at Chicago, and in fact in charge of the republican campaign west of the Mississippi, made a hurried trip to Washington today to confer with President Roosevelt. He declared that the full party ammunition would now be expended in Ohio, Indiana and New York. He said the republicans will carry these states by pronounced pluralities. The senator characterized as absurd the claim that Bryan would carry Wyoming, Utah and Idaho and said that it was a dream without any basis. "Bryan will carry but few states west of the Mississippi. Montana is well within our control," he declared. He claims New York by 100,000 plurality for Taft and Minnesota by from 80,000 to 120,000. The democrats say Senator Dixon has been indulging in pipe dreams.

Secretary Loeb authorized the denial today of the report that President Roosevelt intended to deliver a campaign speech in Carnegie Hall in New York city on October 30.

Eager to arrange an expedition to solve the mystery of the heretofore impenetrable Arctic circle, and with his mind filled with the details of a novel conception which he believes will bring success, Evelyn Baldwin, the noted Arctic explorer, called to see the president today. It is understood that he is seeking government support.

The plant of the National Fire Proofing Company, located at Terra Cotta, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

J. A. Kemp, former chief clerk of the Police Court, charged with embezzlement, pleaded guilty this morning and was sentenced to serve two years at Moundsville penitentiary.

It developed today that President Roosevelt has been talking with some of his callers upon the feasibility of calling an extra session of Congress November 10. It was stated at the White House this afternoon that the president had abandoned the idea.

The condition of Orville Wright, who was recently injured by a fall from his airship at Fort Myer, Va., has so greatly improved that he expects to be taken to his home in Dayton, Ohio, in about two weeks.

The validity of the fine of $60,000 assessed upon the Chicago and Alton Railroad on the charge of giving rebates in 1903 and 1904 to Swarzchild and Sulzberger meat packers, at Kansas City, came up for argument in the U. S. Supreme Court. On the original trial the railroad claimed that its refund of $1 per car was the payment for switching and terminal trackage facilities furnished by the meat packers. When the decision was affirmed in the Circuit Court by Judge Grosscup, evidence tendered by the railroad showing the reasonableness of the charge for trackage facilities was excluded. It is on this ground, and that no specific violation of the Elkins act was found, that the Chicago and Alton bases its appeal to the Supreme Court. Attorneys Blackburn Esterlins and Ralph M. Shaw were heard today on behalf of the railroad, and Solicitor General Hoyt for the government.

Virginia News.

Miss Susie Rawlings and Mr. Albert Preston Scott, of Cape Charles, were married at the home of the bride, Mrs. J. R. Rawlings, in Fredericksburg, yesterday.

Mr. Braxton concluded his argument yesterday in the U. S. Supreme Court in the Virginia rate case. The case was submitted and will be decided possibly at this term.

Thomas Y. Mosby, a well-known resident of Lynchburg, died Monday. He was a native of Bedford county and represented that county in the General Assembly years ago.

A big crowd heard the joint discussion in Fredericksburg last night between Congressman W. A. Jones, democrat, and Capt. S. Wise, of New York. The democrats are jubilant over the result of the debate.

A big democratic rally was held at Hamilton Monday night, which was addressed by Congressman C. C. Carlin, Henry T. Harrison, candidate for the legislature, and R. C. L. Moncure, of Alexandria. Congressman Carlin was unsparing in his criticism of President Roosevelt.

Owing to the opposition of his five grown children to his marriage, Mr. Thos. R. Coving, 63 years of age, a prosperous farmer of Culpeper, went to Baltimore yesterday afternoon accompanied by Miss Edith McMullen, of Greene county, and were married last evening at the parsonage of the Caroline street Methodist Episcopal Church.

A large iron safe at the general merchandise store of M. L. Rice and the post-office at Stokesland, about a mile from Danville, was blown open Monday night by safe-crackers and rifled. About $125 in cash and about $15 in postage stamps were stolen. A box containing several bank certificates and insurance policies and a number of articles of merchandise was also stolen.

Justice W. T. Wharton, of Gainesville district, Prince William county, yesterday rendered his decision in the case of Dr. H. E. Marsteller, charged with abusive language and threatening to shoot J. B. Rhinehardt, in the public highway, near Gainesville, last week. The decision imposes the minimum fines of $25 for carrying of concealed weapons $5 for shooting in the public highway and $1 for abusive language.

Trial of the Hains Brothers

New York, Oct. 21.—Technicalities again delayed the arraignment today of Captain Peter C. Hains and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, charged with the murder of William E. Annis. When the two were brought into court at Flushing, Attorney John F. McIntyre, for the defense, made application to inspect the grand jury minutes. His application was denied. Attorney McIntyre then formally demurred to the indictment of T. Jenkins Hains and will submit papers next Friday. A decision is to be entered Monday. McIntyre based his demurrer to the T. Jenkins Hains indictment on the ground that it charges the author with two separate offenses, one with being a principal in the shooting and the other with aiding ane abetting Captain Hains in the crime.

Somewhere in upper Lake Michigan Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hurry and Peter Saanson and his son, are drifting in a small launch, at the mercy of a heavy gale. They are fisher folk and went out from Manitou Island to set their nets. The heavy westerly wind made it impossible for them to make port.

To believe in part the sufferihg of England's vast army of unemployed, Premier Asquith announced to the British House of Commons today an appropriation of $1,500,000 to be immediately available for public works. The premier also announced that an appropriation of $13,000,000 for naval work would be made shortly.

News of the Day.

A world cocoa trust is being organized in the countries producing that article, according to a report from Consul General Anderson at Rio de Janeiro.

The New York World says: "The World is in a position to state positively that George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the republican national committee, was associated with Charles W. Morse in at least one of his ice pools and moreover got out of it with large profits."

The tour of William J. Bryan through Indiana yesterday was a notable one. The demonstrations accorded him were commented on by the candidate as being exceedingly gratifying. He repeated the prophesy made Monday that he would be in Washington after March.

A procession seven miles long, with 33 bands, three carloads of fireworks, 40 marching clubs and 100 pretty girls singing campaign songs along the route was Kentucky's welcome to William J. Bryan at Louisville last night on his only campaign visit to the state.

In Philadelphia last night Senator Knox made an extended address, in which he discussed what he called Mr. Bryan's "weaknesses and absurdities." He said: I am not unkindly disposed toward Mr. Bryan. His personality is engaging, his industry is prodigious, his talents are remarkable, but his statesmanship is hopeless.

A London news agency dispatch from Athens states that a telegram from Saloniki says an encounter between Turkish and Bulgarian troops has occurred at Djourmaya, on the frontier. Seventy Bulgarians and ten Turks are said to have been killed. It is rumored a Bulgarian band that was trying to enter Turkish territory near Palanka has been annihilated.

Picking up the caboose of a freight train crowded with laborers and officials at Lone Tree, Wyo., on the Union Pacific Railway, as if it were a stick of wood, a gale of wind yesterday carried it over the edge of a fill, and dropped it thirty feet to the ground, smashing the car, killing six laborers and severely injuring thirty others.

Three kites that broke away from Mount Weather, Va., in a dense fog on October 10 have been located in Garrett county, Md., about 15 miles north of Oakland. The kites were last seen in the Shenandoah Valley near the ground. Their unaided ascent to the summit of the Allegheny Mountains, between two and three thousand feet above the level of the Shenandoah Valley, is remarkable.

Russia is the first country of the world to adopt plans for the scientific and sociologic study of crime and criminals, according to information reaching this government. Already $750,000 has been contributed, part of the funds coming from private sources. The theory advanced by Dr. Arthur McDonald of Washington, is that by scientific research it will be possible to determine the causes of crime, and therefore apply methods best adapted to reduce it

Fire in a Tenement House.

New York, Oct. 21.—In one of the most spectacular fires which the east side has seen in months three persons met death today by the torch of a firebug and a score of others were badly hurt. Had it not been for the presence of several muscular policemen, who caught the panic-stricken people as they leaped from the windows of the flaming tenement at No. 85 east Third street, the list of injured would have been longer. Thrown from the windows of the tenement, many children were saved from death by the police who stood in the street and caught them. The blaze was started by the incendiary from a pool of kerosene. When the match was applied, the flames, drawn by the suction of the shaft, shot straight up to the third floor and there mushroomed, blowing out the windows of the apartments into the street and starting a wild panic. In a moment the fire escapes of the building were clogged with terror-stricken men and women. Only the hard fists of two policemen, who clambered to the fire escape along the cornice of the building, quelled the panic and gave the women and children a chance for their lives. Mrs. Yetta Krauss, mother of three sons and two daughters, stamped herself as a heroine. Cut off by the flames, she grasped a clothe line and lowered all her children to the street; then, with her clothing aflame and dazed with the smoke and cinders which eddie about her, she leaped herself to the street. She is in Bellvue Hospital and may die.

Sultan to be Deposed.

Constantinople, Oct. 21.—The diplomatic corps in Constantinople is becoming rapidly convinced that the deposition of Sultan Abdul Hammid is a matter of only a short time. Convinced that he has never been in sympathy with the reforms that he was forced to grant, that he is desirous of seeing Turkey involved in war in order to win back his former power and that he is the central, though hidden, figure in the reactionary movement that is now menacing the new regime, the young Turks have virtually decreed that the sultan must abdicate. It is not believed the sultan will offer violent opposition to dethronement, as it is becoming apparent that it is either this or his assassination.

Forest Fires.

Shelbourne, N. H. Oct. 21.—An almost continuous line of blazing forest extends today from Berlin on the north and west to Bethel at the eastward, across the line in Maine, and the woods are ablaze throughout New Hampshire. Twenty-five hundred acres have been devastated and damage to standing crops is estimated at $25,000,

The fires, which have been burning for a day and night, are now beyond control and are sweeping down upon the farming sections just outside of Shelbourne.

Malone, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Every available man in the northern section of the Adirondacks today is fighting forest fires. The situation was never so critical and unless rain comes soon thousands of acres of virgin forests will be destroyed. The smoke is hindering the fire fighters greatly.

Mr. Bryan Denounces Railroad Officials.

Mount Vernon, O., Oct. 21.—William Jennings Bryan, in his speech at Newark, O., this morning, scathingly denounced General Manager Van Winkle, Vice President Charles Sahaff and Assistant General Superintendent Albert Ingalls, of the Vanderbilt Railway systems, for their alleged coercion of the shop and other employes of the Big Four, the Lakeshore and the New York Central Railway systems. Bryan called the attention of his audience to their speeches to the shopmen at Bellefontaine, last night, in which they declared that his election meant business depression and would result in a cut of ten per cent. of the wages of the men. Albert Ingalls, chief of the traffic department of the Big Four, is Charles P. Taft's son-in law.

Bryan said that the action of these railway managers is "coercion pure and simple and should be punished by law, it being a crime against the franchise."

"Who has given these men the power to prophesy what will happen if I am elected?" demanded Bryan.

"Are they the Lord's anointed and shall they compel you men to vote as they want, and no one raise his voice in protest? Shorn and bereft of every issue in this campaign, confronted with the sure wrath of the aroused people, whose earnings they have been taking for their own use, the predatory corporations now come and threaten panic if you elect me and turn their creatures out of the offices. Who is the republican candidate that he should also declare that my election will result in hard times? If he believes this statement he makes, let him give bond that the present panic will be healed and good times restored under his administration. Was he not in the cabinet of the president when the existing panic started, and if he and the strenuous president could not together prevent that panic and keep business sound, how little chance will there be for him alone to do so, when he is left alone in the White House and Roosevelt goes to Africa to shoot lions?"

Brilliant Entertainment.

Tokio, Oct. 21.—The officers of the American fleet today grasped the hand of Admiral Togo. The little Japanese admiral received the Americans at a brilliant function at the beautiful Shinjuku Imperial Gardens, it being the first time these gardens have been thrown open since the return of the victorious army

The occasion turned out to be as much of a fete to Togo as to the Americans, the latter insisting on making the Japanese hero the lion of the occasion. Nearly two thousand people attended the reception.

A round of dinners followed the reception, Premier Komura, Baron Terauchi, Baron Mitsui and Baron Iwasaki being the hosts. The day closed with a grand ball, the greatest social event Japanese has seen in years. While the petty officers and men of the fleet are not taking a large part in the state functions, they are not lacking for entertainment. Their uniforms are a passport to everything. Excursions to all the interesting points near Tokio and Yokohoma are of daily occurrence and every night the theaters are crowded with the Americans.

Riotous Students.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—As the result of serious rioting among students of many Russian universities, the ministry of education announced today that it may be forced to close the universities until the students come to their senses. The students are fighting against the enforcement of a number of restrictives measures the most objectionable of which is the exclusion of women from the universities. The radicals among the students are demanding a general strike of students throughout the whole empire and the failure of hundreds to respond to the demand has precipitated serious outbreaks. The government is seeking to check the strike by threatening further curtailment of educational liberties if the students do not return to their classes. This threat has had the desired effect in several of the larger universites, among which are the St. Petersburg and Moscow institutions, whose students have voted to suspend the strike.

Escaped From Night Riders.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 21.—Zach Taylor, the aged lawyer who was taken from a hotel at Walnut Log, Tenn., at the same time Captain Rankin was lynched, has turned up near Tiptonville, having escaped from fishermen night riders. After Capt. Rankin was hanged, the masked night riders got into a dispute among themselves as to what to do with Judge Taylor, some favoring his death, while others wanted to hold him, so as to force concession to their demands for free fishing on Reel Foot lake. While the riders disputed, Taylor jumped from the woods, dashed to the edge of the bayou leading from the lake and plunged in, swimming across. He was fired on several times, but escaped in the darkness.

It is said that the Reel Foot Lake night riders form a band 800 strong. They have a perfect organization and are sworn by a blood oath to stand by one another. It is believed they will fight to the death.

Four Men Burned to Death.

Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Four men were burned to death here this morning in a fire which destroyed the steamer New York of the Hudson river day line. The New York came to the Marvelship yard here yesterday to undergo repairs. The crew had not been dismissed and fifty men were on board. The fire, which is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp, broke out in the quarters of the negro help, and the four who perished were unable to escape. The fire quickly spread through the entire vessel, which was burned to the water's edge.

Drowned Himself.

Auburn, Me. Oct. 21.—Provoked because his wife woke him up at three a. m. and insisted on talking to him, Edward H. Goddard, carpenter, dressed himself and running through the deserted street to the Androscoggin river jumped in. His wife sped after him in her night robe, retreating him to come back, but he eluded her. Goddard's body was discovered several hours later in the river.

Fire of incendiary origin destroyed the grain elevator of the Hungarian Flour Mills Company at Denver, Col., early today, causing a loss of about $500,000: Four thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed. The building was worth about $100,000.

John W. Kern, vice presidential nominee on the democratic national ticket, left Syracuse, N. Y., almost a wreck today. Charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, through the passing of worthless checks, James S. Waker, aged 27, of Washington, an employe in the paymaster's department, was held in $500 bail today for the grand jury in New York. It is alleged that Waker left Washington two months ago and went to Baltimore, where he passed worthless checks on several firms who had dealings with the Navy Department.

The negro party, under the leadership of General Estenoz, is making a hard fight for its legislative ticket. It has no presidential ticket.

BIG DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Three members of President Cleveland's Cabinets, by presence and speech at a big democratic gathering in New York, last night, demonstrated beyond peradventure of a doubt that the democracy of Tilden and Cleveland is working to secure the election of Mr. Bryan to the presidency.

The occasion was a massmeeting under the auspices of the Bryan and Kern Business Men's Association at Carnegie Hall, and seated on the platform were former Gov. David R. Francis, of Missouri, Secretary of the Interior under President Cleveland; Judson Harmon, of Ohio, former Attorney-General and Hilary A. Herbert, of Alabama, Cleveland's secretary of the navy. Word was recived from Richard Olney, of Massachusetts, who held the portfolio of secretary of state, that he would be unable to attend because of a previous engagement.

Carnegie Hall contained a notable assemblage of democrats, some of whom have not shared in the party's councils since the Cleveland administration, and the Bryan leaders and others on the platform expressed their delight at the presence of these men

Taking as a theme the present campaign issues from a business standpoint, the chamberlains of Mr. Cleveland's administration, in speeches of forensic force, brought ringing cheers from the audiotrs that closely packed the hall, with declarations that Mr. Bryan's election would mean business stability and an uplift to industrial well being.

Mayor George B. McClellan presided and read a letter from the venerable John Bigelow, author and statesman, a friend of Abraham Lincoln and Samuel J. Tilden, urging the election of Mr. Bryan. The mayor was introduced by Nathan Straus, president of the Bryan and Kern Business Men's Association, and declared that the present administration was responsible for the panic.

GOV. SWANSON IN NEW YORK.

That the American working man is "30 per cent worse off since the Dingley tariff bill was passed" was the declaration of Gov. Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, in an address before the Commercial Travelers' League in New York yesterday. "I was in Congress when that bill was enacted," said Gov. Swanson, "and I predicted then that if it were allowed to continue in force it would produce a panic. That prediction has come true, and the republican party does not dare come out in this campaign and champion that creation of eleven years ago. Since the law was enacted the cost of living has increased 49 per cent, while the wages of working men have increased only 19 per cent. The working man, therefore, is 30 per cent worse off now since this bill was passed."

Gov. Swanson said the position the democratic party has taken is that a man should be taxed on what he has, not on what he need. As illustration of what he termed the unfair way in which the Dingley tariff operates against the poor man, he said that while raw silk is admitted free of duty, wool is taxed; while rare woods are admitted free, pine is taxed, and while champagne pays no duty, there is a tax on beer.

"I could keep you here until sundown telling you of the great inquities of this bill," he said. "Are you surprised, then, that Taft and the republican party dare not defend the measure?" He said all the trusts have been organized under the Dingley tariff law, and said: "You can destroy all the trusts if you repeal the Dingley tariff."

Gov. Swanson said from one-third to one-half of the money of the country is collected in taxes and dissipated by extravagant political administrations.

"We have heard Roosevelt talk about every thing under the sun but economy," he said. "Do you know how many new officeholders he has created? President Roosevelt has created 99,316 new officeholders, more men than Napoleon had at Marengo or Austerlitz, more than the allies had at Waterloo. Why, if Roosevelt was allowed to continue there would be an officeholder on the back of every voter in the country, and you would have to pay the freight."

Gov. Swanson, who has been in conference with democratic leaders in New York, makes the confident prediction that Bryan and Chanler will carry New York.

REFUSED TO ADVANCE CASE

In an order yesterday denying a motion for the advancement of the Noble State Bank case, the U. S. Supreme Court passes by the task of deciding before election the validity of the Oklahoma bank deposit guarantee fund law.

Counsel for the bank some time ago submitted a motion for advancement. Since the case involves the constitutionality of a guarantee plan practically the same as that in the democratic national platform, the court's decision not to consider the matter until at least after election is more than of passing interest

VIRGINIA VETERANS MEET.

Charlottesville was in holiday attire yesterday for the twenty-first annual reunion of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans. Confederate and United States flags are wreathed on many houses and here and there appear portraits of Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson and Fitzhugh Lee.

The Grand Camp was called to order at the Levy Opera House at noon, with Gen. Thomas T. Munford, of Lynchburg, presiding. The prayer was offered by Grand Chaplin J. P. Hyde, of Winchester; Mayor E. G. Haden delivered an address of welcome on the part of the city, and Capt. Micajah Woods, commander, on the part of John Bowie Strange Camp, Confederate Veterans, of Charlottesville. Suitable responses were made.

In his annual report as commander of the Grand Camp Gen. Munford spoke feelingly of the fast-thinning ranks.

In referring to those who had gone in the past year special tribute was paid General Epps Hunton.

General Munford recommended that in future all officers of the Grand Camp be elected on the first day of the annual meeting; that no staff officer shall hold more than one office, and that the Grand Camp hereafter require the nominee for any office whatever within its gift to have his full record read by the adjutant general when the name is presented for election and before ratification.

General Munford reported with pleasure the act passed by the last General Assembly of Virginia prohibiting the misuse of Confederate badges, making it a misdemeanor. This act, he said, enabled each camp to be the custodian of its honored badge.

The United Sons of Confederate Veterans convened at the Market street Armory yesterday evening, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain of the Virginia Division, Rev. C. E. Woodson, of Norfolk. Judge R. T. W. Duke, commander of R. T. W. Duke Camp, introduced Mr. W. G. Pritchard, commander of the Virginia Division. An address of welcome was delivered by Mr. John S. Patton, of R. T. W. Duke Camp, to which Mr. E. W. Speed, of Roanoke, of Albert Sidney Johnson Camp, responded. The sponsors were presented by Mr. John B. Lightfoot, jr., of R. E. Lee Camp, Richmond, and the reception response was made by W. W. Old, jr., of Norfolk, George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, delivered an address.

At all these meetings the music by Confederate Choir No. 1, of Portsmouth, was a delightful feature. The members of the choir, were uniformed in gray jacket and the usual veteran hat.

After these exercises a reception was given at the Red Land Club. This was attended by 500 persons. Lunch was served by the Albemarle Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

THE GERMAN CLUB.

[Written for the Alexandria Gazette.]

The members of the Alexandria German Club convened last night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting was well at ended, harmonious and satisfactory.

The meeting had been called for the purpose of organizing the club, Dr. Thos. B. Cochran was elected temporary chairman and Mr. J. S. Douglas, jr., secretary. Dr. Cochran, who has been the president for a number of years, was at once renominated for the season of 1908 9. The doctor begged to withdraw his name, alleging that he was now a married man upon whom certain household duties were incumbent, such as rocking the cradle and other domestic occupations, unknown to the lonely bachelor, which might deter him from attending to the business of president of the club in his usual faithful manner. He was finally induced, however, to accept the nomination and he was unanimously reelected.

Mr. Douglas, the efficient secretary, was next elected.

The next officer voted upon and elected, was that able young financier Mr. Julian T. Burke, jr., who reported a comfortable surplus to the credit of the club in his bank. He was re-elected.

The next business in order was the election of four members to act as a committee in conjunction with the officers of the club. The following having been nominated were elected: Messrs. Douglas Stuart, H. O. B. Cooper, Arthur Herbert and C. D. Barrett.

The president was empowered to appoint sub-committees on music, the number of dances to be given, eligibility of applicants for memberships &c.

It was then moved that the organization be made a permanent one, and on the passage of that motion. Mr. Nicol who though arriving a little late, moved that by-laws be formulated governing the club. His motion was promptly seconded and passed.

Some discussion then arose as to the the number of dances to be given and also as to the expediency of serving a modest collation at the german. Some members very properly favored that plan, remembering that the ladies were debared from stepping across the street to procure a cracker, a piece of cheese and a clove. All such regulations having been referred to the committee and Judge L. C. Barley and Mr. R. H. Beverly, those accomplish leaders having been nominated and elected to fill that difficult and important officer, the meeting adjourned sine die.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Opera House tonight Tom Howard, the clever black face comedian, will entertain all with his latest songs and jokes; also Miss Alexander, a clever little soubrette, will sing and dance.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company there will be the greatest show tonight that has been seen in this city. The crowds which attended this house last night attested the popularity of the motion pictures.

The Elite Picture Company will give an entire change of pictures tonight. Younger Brothers, a strong western picture; Parisian Life, in miniature; Basket party, a fine hand-colored picture. Chrissie Waltham, is drawing large crowds to hear her she is very fine in her comic and coon songs being first class in every way. Don't fail to see the pictures and hear "Chrissie" tonight.

The occasion was the social session of the Young Men's Senate, which proved to be one of the most interesting affairs in the history of the organization. All except one number of the programme published in yesterday's Gazette was carried out, and all who participated acted well their parts. Refreshments were served at the close of the session

Rev. Edmund J. Lee, who has returned to this country after five years' missionary work in Hankow, China, delivered a most interesting address on the work and conditions in the orient at Christ Church last night.

At her home on Prince street yesterday Mrs. Frank T. King entertained at an informal reception tendered Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, president of Hope-Maury Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Norfolk, and custodian of the Confederate flag of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Virginia. The reception was attended by many of the ladies of the several Confederate societies of this city.

A Startling Statement.

New York Medical Authorities Claim Dyspepsia Causes Consumption.

The post mortem statistics of the big New York hospitals show that some cases of consumption are due to unchecked dyspepsia, especially when the victim was predisposed to tuberculosis.

Dyspepsia wears out the body and brain, the weakened, irritable stomach is unable to digest food, the body does not receive the required nourishment, constipation ensues and the victim becomes thin, weak and haggard. As a result, the body becomes a fertile field for the germs of disease to lodge and flourish.

Therefore, the person who permits dyspepsia to progress unhindered is guilty of contributing toward the development of one of the most insidious and fatal diseases known to mankind.

Dyspepsia is curable if properly treated. W. P. Taylor sells a remedy which he positively guarantees will cure indigestion or dyspepsia or he will pay for all the medicine used during the trial. This remedy is an absolutely new medical discovery and has been named Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Certainly no offer could be more fair, and the offer of W. P. Taylor is proof positive that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a dependable and infallible remedy. Inasmuch as the medicine will cost you nothing if it does not benefit you we urge you who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to try this remedy. A twenty-five cent box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets contains enough medicine for fifteen days' treatment. Remember Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are only sold in Alexandria by W. P. Taylor, 616 King street.

Schooner in Distress.

Galilee, N. J. Oct. 21.—With her flag at half mast and upside down, a three masted schooner is dragging her anchors and being driven ashore a half mile off the United States wireless station here. Captain Green and his life savers have their boat ready and are preparing to render assistance if the schooner starts to go to pieces. The vessel, her name unknown, hove to off the Jersey coast last night, but it was not untill daylight that she was found to be much in danger. Tugs are going to her assistance.

Killed by Falling Girder.

New York, Oct. 21.—His head completely severed from his body, Patrick Sullivan, aged 45, of Mariners Harbor, S. I., was instantly killed by being struck by a falling girder while at work on the new building at 17th street and Fourth avenue. Sullivan was working on the cement sidewalk when the girder fell from the sixth story. He tried to get out of the way, but slipped and one of the beams struck him on the back of the neck. Frank Frixel, of Jersey City, foreman, was arrested charged with criminal negligence.

General Alfred Picard was today named as French Minister of Marine to succeed M. Gaston Thomason, who resigned Monday as the result of charges of incompetence and negligence in the conduct of the office.

THE DOCTORS.

The Medical Society of Virginia began its thirty-ninth annual convention last night in the Jefferson Hotel at Richmond. One hundred new members were elected, as well as fifteen councilors.

President W. F. Drewry, in his annual address, denounced the present theory that prevails in some quarters regarding "experts on insanity" as for sale to the highest bidder, and recommended that the court be empowered to call the expert instead of allowing the defense or the plaintiff to do so.

Mayor Richardson formally welcomed the convention to the city to which suitable response was made by Dr. L. G. Pedigo, of Roanoke.

The reports of standing committees and of the secretary and treasurer followed.

Among the councilors elected was Dr. T. C. Quick, of Falls Church, for the Eighth district.

DUTY TO BE LOWERED.

After months spent in investigating the wood and print paper industry of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, the committee of six appointed by Congress to make a study of conditions will recommend that the duty on the pulp wood and print paper be revised. Congressman Mann of Duluth, Minn., yesterday. "It is my belief that the committee will recommend a revision of the tariff on both Canadian pulp wood and Canadian print paper. The pulp wood supply of the Northwest at the present rate of consumption will not last many years. Canada seems to be our only salvation."

Gazelle Hunting.

Gazelles in Nubia are hunted by a powerful breed of hounds in build somewhat heavier than a greyhound. In spite of being far swifter than the hound the gazelle falls a victim from the nervous habit of constantly stopping to look back to see if it is pursued. It also expends its strength by taking great bounds in an almost vertical direction, thereby not only losing time, but exhausting itself, so that it is overtaken without difficulty.

Did as He Was Told.

A well known Brooklyn clergyman in a talk to his Sunday school urged the children to speak to him whenever they met. The next day a dirty faced urchin accosted him in the street with, "How do, doc?"

The clergyman stopped and cordially inquired, "And who are you, sir?"

"I'm one of your little lambs," replied the boy affably. "Fine day!" And, tilting his hat to the back of his head, he swaggered off, leaving the worthy divine speechless with amazement.
